

Actor's Contract

I, _____, gratefully accept my role as a company member for the production of _____.

I recognize that “there are no small parts, only small actors,” and I am part of a bigger picture. My participation, no matter how big or small, is very important to a great show.

I promise to have fun, support the ensemble, and share my ideas in a way that is respectful to others. I will work hard to be on time, memorize my lines, and collaborate with others.

I understand that others will depend on me and I agree to put forward the positive effort required to make our performance the best it can be.
